The focus includes beliefs about Brahman, Vishnu, Avatar (especially Krishna) and Scriptures. Opportunities are provided for pupils to explore some forms of Hindu literature and the beliefs and practices associated with a key story. Pupils will need to revisit prior learning – in order to understand this unit, they need to know that Hindus believe in one God in many forms (Brahman) and that Vishnu is a popular form of Brahman as he is seen as the protector and preserver. One way that Vishnu fulfils this role is through avatars. They will already be aware of one of Vishnu’s avatars (Rama) through learning about Diwali and the story of Rama and Sita. Pupils should also be encouraged to consider whether there are links between the ‘truths’ and values revealed in the story and their own beliefs, values and experiences. This builds on their prior learning about how Christians are guided to live. Pupils will learn about the effect that belief in salvation brought about by Jesus’ death and resurrection has. They will discover how the act of confessing sins and seeking reconciliation and forgiveness restores relationships with others and with God in the eyes of the believer, leading to faith in life after death. Pupils should have opportunities to reflect on the importance of forgiveness to them.	Lancashire Syllabus 2021 Put pupils into groups and give each a large sheet of paper with one of these questions: What sort of things are we sorry for? Why do we say sorry? Why is it important to say sorry? Give them time to discuss their question and note any ideas onto the sheet. After a few minutes, pass sheets around so that each group receives a question with some ideas already noted. They can read what the previous group’s responses were and add other ideas that they may have. Continue until all questions have been considered by each group. Display the responses and discuss. Place numbers 0-10 in the centre of the classroom/hall. Explain that this is a forgiveness scale where 0 represents something that can be forgiven easily and instantly and 10 is something unforgivable. Share some scenarios. After each, pupils place themselves on the scale according to how challenging that scenario would be to forgive. Any position is acceptable as long as they can explain why they have placed themselves there. Use this later in the unit as an assessment opportunity.

They should gain an understanding of the importance of revelation within Islam and how this impacts on the way that the Qur'an is viewed and treated. Pupils should make links with prior learning about the night of power (Laylat Ul-Qadr), not only knowing what happened, but also why it is important for Muslims and how it is remembered. They should develop knowledge and understanding of the Prophet Muhammad and how/why he is a role model and source of guidance for Muslims. This is an opportunity to pull together prior learning about the life of the Prophet. Pupils should have opportunities to discuss what is meant as 'Ultimate Authority' and should recognise how this may differ for different members of society – including religious and non-religious individuals and communities. They should be able to link this with their learning about the Qur'an as the word of God and ultimate source of authority for Muslims.		Lancashire Syllabus 2021 Make a list of achievements within the last 12 months. Pupils could bring certificates, pictures or write down what they have done. Discuss and reflect on how they achieved what they have - was it through being taught something new? Practice? Could they have done it two years ago? What has changed to allow them to develop their potential? Write a Hajj diary – including the experiences, emotions and personal reflections of a Hajji (this could be used as an assessment task). Pupils to make a journey map with photographs or pictures of their lives so far, plotting all the important events and achievements.
